

Tolerance and freedom of speech

Senior
College
Breakfast

Some say millennials are the most tolerant generation ever, but student culture around the world is more and more intolerant of people who express 'unacceptable' views. Why does freedom of speech matter? How can we be right - or wrong - without being jerks? And is it possible to fiercely disagree with someone, and love them at the same time?

Guest speaker
Dr Natasha Moore

Wednesday 16 August 2017

7 am for 7.15 am start, concluding at 8.10 am

$9 per student

Please contact Libby Bennett for an invoice
(no cost for accompanying staff)

Abbotsleigh Dining Room

Located in the main building at the front of the School.

A light breakfast consisting of juice, fresh fruit, yoghurt, croissants and tea/coffee/hot chocolate will be served.

RSVP Friday 11 August 2017

For further information, please contact Libby Bennett on 9473 7719 or bennette@abbotsleigh.nsw.edu.au

Our Breakfast aims to:

- Inform (knowledge and understanding / awareness raising)
- Invite (reflection, discussion, critical thinking)
- Inspire (leadership, wellbeing, service, global citizenship, creativity, the pursuit of passions, personal excellence, career choices, ethical living, understanding of diversity and faith perspectives)

ABBOTSLEIGH

