

Newsletter

The Careers team have been working diligently and have nearly finished interviewing all year 10 students, and have started chatting to the Year 11 students. A reminder that students should now be thinking about their subject selections for 2018. Students need to make informed decisions and begin researching possible courses and pathways.

The RSC Careers website provides access to an extensive range of resources that would assist students and parents. Attached is a list of Open Days, so we encourage students to explore and visit prospective educational institutions.

Also attached is a resource prepared for year 10 students to assist in making subject selections.
