A FESTIVAL TO CELEBRATE THE SPIRIT
AND PEOPLE OF ONKAPARINGA

13-16 OCTOBER 2017

CITY OF ONKAPARINGA

WELCOME TO INSPIRE 2017

13–16 OCTOBER

Our inaugural learning festival has everything you need for expanding knowledge through your head, heart and hands.

Inspire 2017 brings together a selective range of workshops, think tanks, seminars and other exciting activities, delivered across three major themes:

- Inspirational Communities
- Inspirational Acts
- Inspirational Futures

The festival will provide immersive experiences to engage in real world issues and to enable participation in real and meaningful ways.

Let's learn together and celebrate the spirit and people of Onkaparinga.

We invite you to come along and be inspired!

Inspire Definitions:

Fill (someone) with the urge or ability to do or feel something, especially to do something creative. Breathe in (air); inhale.

YOUTH WORKSHOP

ENGAGING FOR CHANGE!

Saturday 14 October 2017

10.30am–1.30pm

Civic Centre, Noarlunga

Understanding the core elements of democracy and empowering young citizens to engage to make change. A learning through action approach, young participants are supported to lead their peers in mechanisms to make their voices heard by decision makers using democratic processes.

THE FUTURE OF SOCIAL ENTREPRENEURSHIP

Saturday 14 October 2017

2.30–5.30pm (afternoon tea provided)

Civic Centre, Noarlunga

A specialised Masterclass for entrepreneurs, innovators and change makers.

- Do you have a desire to create social change in our region?
- Do you want to develop your ideas, initiatives and connections?
- Are you ready to exercise your leadership to build on our future?

Dr Sharon Zivkovic a world leader in social entrepreneurship will be leading this event where we will compare and contrast the two main social entrepreneurship schools of thought: the social enterprise school and the social innovation school.

After the presentation you will be given the opportunity to work with others to 'apprentice with a problem' to gain a deeper understanding of the environmental or social challenges in our city.

At the conclusion of the event participants will have the opportunity to share their ideas and register for:

- Leadership Onkaparinga 2018
- A boutique mentoring bundle through the ON Program
- A scholarship into the New Venture Institute – Flinders University entrepreneurship and innovation program.

LEARNING COMMUNITIES

AN AFTERNOON WITH PETER KENYON

Sunday 15 October 2017

12–4pm (lunch included)

Arts Centre, Port Noarlunga

Join us in a community conversation with world renowned Community Builder Peter Kenyon. Peter will facilitate an interactive workshop where you will learn about the building blocks of locally led community initiatives. You will have the opportunity to develop community connections, strengthen your ideas and how to inspire others in your neighbourhood.

Peter Kenyon is a community enthusiast and the Director of Bank of Ideas. Over the last two decades he has worked with over 1500 communities throughout Australia and overseas, seeking to facilitate fresh and creative ways that stimulate community and economic renewal. He is motivated by the desire to create healthy, caring, inclusive, sustainable and enterprising communities and local economies.

INSPIRE US GRANTS NIGHT

Sunday 15 October 2017

6.30–9.30pm (doors open at 6pm)

Arts Centre, Port Noarlunga

Our inaugural Inspire 2017 festival offered five grants of $3000 to community groups who can create inspirational activities, initiatives, events or places.

We have shortlisted 10 community groups to be involved in participatory decision making.

Each group will be making a pitch and will vote to determine five successful grant recipients.

Community members are welcome to attend and view the pitches.

IN SESSION WITH JIM DIERS

Monday 16 October 2017

1–5pm

Arts Centre, Port Noarlunga

You are invited to join Jim Diers in this series of inspirational presentations and Q & A.

1–2pm

Not-for-profit, universities or faith-based organisations as good community partners

2.30–3.30pm

Community led revitalisation of neighbourhoods

4–5pm

Cultivating community through gardens

Jim Diers has a passion for getting people engaged with their communities and in the decisions that affect their lives. Jim teaches courses in community organising and development at the University of Washington and serves on the faculty of the Asset-Based Community Development Institute.

SAVING OUR PLANET

THROUGH COMMUNITY ACTIONS

Monday 16 October 2017

6.30–8.30pm (light supper provided)

Arts Centre, Port Noarlunga

Join us for an inspirational evening with world renowned Community capacity builder Jim Diers.

Jim will share inspiring stories from around the world to illustrate the power and innovations that communities can generate. He will also share lessons about how to build broad and inclusive community participation. Based on his 40-year community development career in Seattle and his work in 17 countries, Jim believes that strong and inclusive communities are the key to environmental sustainability. It is when people identify with one another and the place they share that they tend to act responsibly and can build the power to hold government and corporations accountable for doing the same. Communities also have tremendous resources they can tap to undertake environmental initiatives.
